“ Starchie, I know you don't remember me, but in July 1957 your mother gave me my one and only baby shower. She also taught me how to drive and took me to get my drivers license the only one I ever had. And my what a donut maker!!! This was in Carlisle. She was a wonderful lady. After retiring I returned to West Virginia, I tried to contact her and was told that she had went to Virginia. Though it has been years, I have many fond memories or her and her family. God Bless Annabelle Harmon.

*Mrs. Tina,
Thank you for everything you did for Mamaw while you worked there.
She sure did love you and she was indeed a hoot!
I hope you are well. Have had the pleasure of meeting your son and your sweet granddaughter and work in the room next to Heather.
Take care of yourself.
Love,
Carla*

“ *Please know that your entire family are in my prayers at this time.
May the Lord place His loving arms around you and see you through this most difficult time. Our comfort in times like this is that one day we shall be rejoined with our loved ones. In His love,
Sharon Lowe*
