“ I'm sorry to say that I had lost track of Ray over the years and just found out about his passing. He was a good friend and an all-around great guy and the world is a lesser place without him. My sincerest condolences to the family, and I pray that God will help to ease your pain and bring you peace in this time of sadness.

“ Ray is my sister (in law)'s brother.... I took that boy driving in my mustang when he was 15, teaching him how to drive and tear up a parking lot. I've always loved him like my own little brother. I miss you, Ray. I love you always.
