She was a long-time member of the Richlands First Assembly of God Church. She loved The Lord with all her heart and was a devoted Christian her entire life and exemplified a true Christian as described in Proverbs 31 (a wife of noble character, she is worth more than rubies). To her family, she leaves her heritage of unconditional love for the Lord, a mother who taught about the love of Jesus by her Godly example, a virtuous wife and mother, trustworthy, hardworking, always resourceful, and wise.

She was well known for her delicious meals for family and friends, which always included homemade pies, cakes, and bread. She loved visits from family and friends and her favorite time of the year was the annual beach trip enjoying all the fresh oysters and making memories with family.

A Celebration of her Life will be held on Wednesday, January 31, 2024, beginning at 1:00 PM at the Hurst- Scott Funeral Home Chapel in Richlands, Virginia with the Rev. Buddy Herald officiating. “ We did not get the pleasure of meeting Virgie, but my fiancé and I feel like we know her well! We recently bought her sweet home! We feel the love her and her husband shared there! When we change something, I always ask Lucas if he thinks Virgie would approve! We hope to have as many years and love in the house as she did! With love Leanna and Lucas!
