“ MaMa you were and still are one of the most special ladies that I have ever known. The life lessons that you taught me, I still carry proudly with me today. Some of my fondest memories and pleasures that I carry closely in my heart, are while visiting up and waking up on a cold winter day and feeling so warm under all your quilts. Memories of you cooking biscuits and gravy for breakfast, Friday night hamburger fry?s or sitting on the back porch snapping beans and talking with you. I love you and thank you so much for your smiles and hugs. I miss you and am sad that my wife and your two great grandchildren, Ruth & Rebecca never got to experience one of your loving hugs and your smiles as you looked into our eyes. I wanted so much for you to also hold your newest great grandson. You will be greatly missed and I know that we will meet together in heaven oneday. We LOVE YOU and ALWAYS WILL, Jeff, Yolanda, Ruth, Rebecca and Baby Sauls.

“ Mamaw you were something very special to each and every one of us. Although you only met my wife once, and you never got see your great great grandsons Justin and soon to be Brandon, I know that you are looking down on us all right now and showering us with your love. I will miss you so much, and it hurts me very much that we did not get a chance to see you just one more time. Each and every time I did see you, you were so full of life and I know that you've carried that with you in your journey through heaven. We love you... and we miss you so much. We will all be joined together again someday. Love always,
Kevin, Tiffany, Justin, and Brandon

“ With great sadness we say goodbye to a wonderful lady who touched the hearts of everyone she knew. She made everyone she met feel like one of the family as my wife and many others can attest. We will all miss her warm smile, loving hugs, and the way she could brighten every family get together. I know she would want us all to welcome the upcoming holiday season as an opportunity to spend time with family and friends and to celebrate her life filled with much joy, love and kindness. She blessed and enriched all of our lives.
