“ I will be sending condolences, love, prayers, and peace to ALL , who have been effected by the passing of this beautiful woman. She was not not my blood, but an Aunt through marriage. I can still see her smile, hear her laughter and caring for many, including siblings. She stood by me during a difficult time, keeping me comforted, when nobody else could. She understood everyone, and knew just what to say to relieve me and I'm sure many others. Most wont understand, why I write this. But I blv you will eventually. I know I hvnt seen her in quite some time, but no matter what, she was there for me. Virginia you will be deeply n sorely missed. You may now, converse with the sister who needed you, wanted to talk to you, but was forced not to. May you make up for lost times. As for the family. I AM SO SORRY. The hurt is unimaginable. But know she's earned her wings n she's with her loved ones once again. God Bless You All. And "Thank You" for still loving me as family. She'd want nothing more for you all to kp the Jones ' family close n stay in touch. I love each n everyone of you.
