“ Sister Virginia, There's no words to describe just how precious you were to John and me. You were always an inspiration to me, and I dearly loved to hear you sing and praise the Lord. And your blindness never hindered you or your talent. I so admired you and Brother Jimmy, you were both such wonderful people. Now the both of you are together once again, and your blindness is gone. You have eyes to see the face of Jesus and to see the beauties of Heaven. You can now join John and sing together as you did down here. I love you so much and you will be missed by all who knew and loved you. RIP my dear friend.
