“ Losing a mother, is one of the hardest things that children often endure. There is no one on earth that can replace those who have raised and reared us in our childhood as there is no one who loves us like our mother.

My heartfelt sympathy for this loss. I hope in time, you experience less grief when you remember her.

“ I will miss you dearly Miss V. Like I told you you were my surrogate grandma since all my family is in NC. I feel terrible at the loss of you & I will miss having you to lean on when I needed someone. I will always remember you setting up a little picnic for mu girls after school & us laughing at our "private jokes".

Just the short time I have known you, you made a difference in my life & made me feel not so alone in a strange city where I had no one.
