“ Popaw, you will be missed so much each day. The days of limits on fish and tough fishing conditions are over; you can now fish everyday and catch sizes unimagionable. We will miss you everyday and thank you for all of you hard labors to provide us such wonderful life as we have today. You truly where the "Worldest Greatest Grandpa" not many granddads would answer their 8 year old grandson this way:

"Popaw, what you building"; " A ferris wheel"...

The gift God had given you in the ability to build with your hands and ever designing mind has been passed on to me and my son. We will keep the Harrison "erector skills" roleing here on Earth until we join you to see what wonderful "modifications" you have made for us in Heaven.

You will be loved for ever and ever.

Oh and thank for a the "Worldest Greatest Mother"; she has your heart of gold.

“ Uncle Jack, I have so many sweet memories. Family singings "over on the hill", family reunions, Christmas dinners etc. I think one of the sweetest was when you came to see me Georgia and there was a "Green Acres" marathon on TV. You watched episode after episode and laughed and laughed. I had never heard you laugh like that. The last few years have been very tough for you. So you go rest on that mountain in the land where we'll never grow and I'll meet you in the morning. What a day, glorious day that will be.
