“ Ken is and will be so missed. He was much more than family. He was a conrad in arms. A cohort in the search for "chocolates and donuts and sweets". Anything we could get our hands on in the search for a sweet fix.

He was so much fun and again so much more than simply family. He was a teacher, a hunter, a fisher, a provider, an entertainer, a teacher and leader of oneriness.

He passes so much on to each and everyone of us to carry on forever in our hearts and lives.

There are so many memories in my life of and with Ken, as well as Ne, Marcy, Kurtis and the kids and our families blended as one that do and will warm my heart as well as everyone else's that this website will not hold nor contain not even a minute' piece of what is in and we carry on in our hearts. Ken, be happy and at peace in those happy fishing and hunting grounds.

With love and camaraderie in orneriness and chocolate and teasing forever in our hearts. You are loved.
