John & Crystal So sorry for your loss.I was sick with that stomach virus and didn't get to come to the service for Wanda.My heart was broken because she was my dear friend.We sit together in church until I started going to church some where else.She was truly a good Godly woman and she will be greatly missed.Her work down here is over and she is in her heavenly home that she talked so much about.She truly loved you both and loved those grandkids.John,last time I saw her she was talking about her new little granddaughter.You all are in my prayers.You had a praying Mom and she desires to see you again.If you need me just call.963-6182.
