

Wayne Moses Parris

December 8, 1951 - May 9, 2019

Wayne Moses Parris, age 67, of the Keen Mt. section of Buchanan County, Virginia, passed away May 9, 2019 following a brief illness.

Wayne was born in Richlands, Virginia and was the son of the late Henry Lee Parris and Katherine Johnson Parris of Tazewell, Virginia.

Wayne loved life and he had faith in the Lord. He enjoyed going places, such as church, shopping and eating out at local restaurants. He never turned down a good ride anywhere. He would share anything he had with his friends. He loved to joke with everyone, and his laugh would bring a smile to anyone in his presence. Wayne liked to sit on the patio when the weather was nice. He also liked to play card games and checkers, especially if he was winning. He had a lot of health problems, but he lived his life to the fullest and brought so much joy to his family and friends.

Wayne is survived by his brother, Izeah Parris of Cedar Bluff, Virginia and a special cousin Herman Clements of Tazewell, Virginia.

Those left to cherish his memory are a host of “extended family” and friends from Cumberland Mountain Community Services. Several family and friends also survive. Wayne will be missed by all who knew him.

A Celebration of Life Service will be held for Wayne on Monday, May 20 at 12:00 pm with the Reverend Tim Lester officiating at the Cedar Bluff Community Church located at 517 Honey Rock Road, Cedar Bluff, Va.

Hurst-Scott Funeral Home in Richlands, Virginia is in charge of arrangements and those wishing to express sympathy online may do so at www.hurstscottfuneralhomes.com

“ Oh what can I say about my sweet friend. You sure knew how to beat me a good game of cards and enjoyed every moment of it. I wish I came to tell you about school more these past few months and to show you how much Chris has grown. I love you buddy and I'll see you on the other side some day.
