“ *To the family of Bill Cregger,
May God Bless and comfort you in your loss! We were friends of Bill and Jean many, many, years ago and it is wonderful to hear that he was still preaching God's Word and that he can now join his loving wife that God called home so long ago!

“ I sure do hate to hear about Bill passing, him and my grandfather and I used to go coon hunting about every week when I was a little boy. Bill was the first person other than my grandpa that I ever hunted with as best that I can remeber, and I will always remember the hunts with him.
