“ I am so sorry for your loss!! I have very fond memories of Danny from family reunions and he always had a smile on his face. Even though I didn't see him much, he would give me a big hug and acted like it had only been days since we had all last talk.
My condolences to Tammy and his whole family who loved him and are going thru so much right now, you are in my thoughts and prayers.

“ With deepest heartfelt sympathy. William was a great man. Was an honor to stand with him and do funerals for fallen veterans. May God sent his comfort down upon each of his family.

“ *Tammy & Family, Words can not express our sorrow for your family. William was such a wonderful man.
We shared so many great times and laughs.
Mostly at choir practice, but any where we were. He always had a smile and genuine how are you? He will be remembered and missed more than we can say. We are praying for all of you, and he was our family too. So anything you need, we are here for you. God Bless & Hold tight to you all. We love you Robbie
