

William Allen Culbertson

March 27, 1939 - December 25, 2016

William Allen Culbertson, of the Kents Ridge Road section of Cedar Bluff, Virginia, was born in Harlan, Kentucky on March 27, 1939, and passed away peacefully on December 25, 2016. Better known as Bill or “Wild Bill”, he was an avid outdoorsman with many adventures and tall tales from his hunting and fishing travels across the US. His special hunting buddies included Justin Reed, Bud Culbertson, Dale and Lee Fuller, Mountain Man Mike, Samp Cruey, and Billy Ball along with all his Bobby Brown State Park fishing buddies including Bill “Kingsfish” Meade and a host of other family and friends.

Bill's early passion was working on cars and winning many trophies in his souped up red '55 Chevy Pick-up at Cedar Hills Raceway. Bill owned and operated the Doran Texaco where he led the community and mentored many local youths. He loved the Washington Redskins, Virginia Tech Hokies, his tailgating crew, the Cripple C Ranch hands (past and present), and Shiner Bock beer.

A special place for Bill was Cripple C Ranch, his farm on Kent's Ridge, where he raised beef cattle, shared many memories of camp outs, summer days, and legendary Pig Roasts gone by. He brought light and love to friends and family through his devotion and humor. His humble spirit will be remembered by all who knew him.

He is preceded in death by his mother, Ruth Marie Powers Culbertson; his father, William Mahone Culberson Jr.; and an infant son, Robert Allen Culbertson.

He is survived by his wife of 57 years, Susie Culbertson; his four children, William Mahone "Mac" Culbertson III, Dusty Holcombe, June Marie Wilson, and Jonce Allen Culbertson; his children by love, Mary Catherine Culbertson, Toni Holcombe, Jerry Wilson and Adrianna Culbertson; his grandchildren, Catherine Anne Culbertson-Shelton and husband Captain Josh Shelton, William Mahone "Will" Culbertson IV, Brogan Holcombe, Sam Culbertson, Alden Wilson, Emma Holcombe, Nelia Culbertson, Becca Holcombe, Jonce Allen Culbertson II, Eliza Culbertson; sisters, Carol Meade and husband Bill of Williamston, South Carolina and Elaine Ratliff and husband Eddie of Bonita Springs, Florida, and his brother, George Culbertson and wife Deb of Ridgefield, Washington; numerous nieces and nephews; and special friends Dale Smith, Mary Hurt, Steve Lester, and Pat Stiltner.

Finally, we would like to thank and honor Helping Hands Hospice, the dedicated staff of Commonwealth Memory Care, and the special friends and staff of Community Home Care Services for helping Bill during his passing. A memorial service will be held at a later date. In lieu of flowers the family would request donations be made in Bill's honor to the Alzheimer's Association, Helping Hands Hospice, or Hunters for the Hungry.

“ Dear Susie, Mac, June Marie, and Jonce, Gail and I want to express our deepest sympathy to the family. Bill Culbertson was a man with outstanding character, love for his family and others in his life, a true and sincere gentleman. Bill is the man whose conduct proceeds from good will and an acute sense of propriety, and whose self-control is equal to all emergencies; who does not make the poor man conscious of his poverty, the obscure man of his obscurity, or any man of his inferiority or deformity; who is himself humbled if necessity compels him to humble another; who does not flatter wealth, cringe before power, or boast of his own possessions or achievements; who speaks with frankness but always with sincerity and sympathy; whose deed follows his word; who thinks of the rights and feelings of others, rather than his own; and who appears well in any company, a man with whom honor is sacred and virtue safe.- John Walter Wayland. I apologize for copying this, but this describes Bill Culbertson to a "T". Gail and I know Bill will be deeply missed by his precious bride, Susie as no one else could ever fill Bill's shoes in her life. We pray God sends his blessings and comfort to Susie and the entire family. We love you all!

“ To the family,

I have you in thought and prayer. As a young boy, I was at the Doran Texaco station many times, for Bill and my father Estil were friends and they worked on/serviced my father's coal trucks there at the station. At Halloween my dad would stop in at the station and let me and my sister Karen come in for candy. The memories of those times I still cherish today and over all these years may each of you also have many precious memories of Bill to cherish.

Sincerely and God Bless, Dr. Larry Wayne Joyce
