“ We hate this so bad. Dave Peters was a great man and an excellent banker. He treated you the exact way he would want to be treated. He always was willing to help. If he said he would take care of something, within one half of a day the matter was taken care of. He always would call us back if we needed him too. These good people in the work force are few. He always made the customers satisfied. A dying breed. RIP Dave, you're sure gonna be missed.
