“ Joann, Anya and Hunter:

Our sympathy goes out to each of you during this very difficult time. We pray that God will bring you peace and comfort in His own way. We will be thinking of you all and you will continue to be in our prayers. We will miss Dale's upbeat and always happy personality -- I will miss calling him about scouts for Hunter! We will all miss him! Again, you will be in our thoughts and prayers. We will all work together through this difficult time and we will do whatever we can to comfort you.

“ Dear JoAnn: I read with much dismay about Dale's passing tonite. My heart goes out to you, Anya, and Hunter. Even though we do not see each other very much, I still think so fondly of you and Dale and the kids. My heart aches to know the pain you are feeling. If there is anything I can do, just give me a call; or better yet, stop by the office and I'll give you a hug. Call me when you are able or if you need anything; take one minute at a time.

With Much Affection and Regret

“ Dale was a great friend of ours, and this news has put a shadow our hearts.

We started our very first job at Western Sizzlin Steakhouse in Lebanon, Virginia and Dale was our new manager. Dale became more than just a boss to us being that he took us in and became a "big brother" figure in our lives. This may not sound like a big deal to some, but it was a major thing to us because we were raised without a father. The biggest thing that makes Dale different from most others is the fact that we are minorities in this area. Dale treated us better than I can say about some of our own people. I remember Dale taking his free time to take us to play ball at a local church back in 1985. We were only sixteen years old, and I cannot think of a friendlier man. I will always remember the example that Dale demonstrated. I want you all to know that I truly believe that this man is one of God's angels looking down on us from Heaven above. God Bless the Woodall family.

“ JoAnn - my sweet dear friend, I am so sorry to hear about Dale's passing. My heart aches for you and your family. I hate that I didn't know about his passing or I would have tried my best to be there for you. I was also dealing with my father who was very ill and he passed away on 12/21 and I buried him on Christmas Eve. I know this time is extremely difficult for you and the kids but the Lord WILL take care of you and comfort you in ways that are unexplainable. I know you hurt but Dale is in a better place and had the very BEST Christmas that he ever had. He celebrated it with our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ and he probably met my grandmother, uncle, brother, and my father. He also was reunited with his father. Please call me so we can talk. My work number is 423-239-2935. I know you have tried to call me but when I would get home I didn't feel like talking to anyone b/c I was dealing with my daddy and I realize how selfish that was to you. Please accept my apology and know that you and your family are and have always been in my thoughts and most importantly my prayers. God will give you the strength when you need it and will give you peace that passes all understanding. Trust me on this one b/c I KNOW this to be true. He is a sovereign God and is in control of all situations and He will be glorified through the passing of Dale. We just have to wait to see what the Lord will do. His timing is always perfect. I just found out from someone just the other day that they were saved and they told me that my brother's passing was something that led to their salvation b/c they were searching for help in their suffering and the Lord searched their heart and brought them into eternal life. This was such a great gift to me. My flesh still hurts of all the deaths I have endured in the past 5 years but my soul and spirit rejoices in knowing that my loved ones were saved and that they never saw death. They left this world and entered into the presence of Jesus and that gives me such a great peace. Keep looking up, keep Dale alive in your home, comfort yourself and the children, expect the Lord to do a miracle for you b/c He will. I miss you and love you very much!! Laura
