So sorry to hear about your brother. Our families sure go back a long way, I can remember coming to your Dad's and Mom's house when I was a little girl and my Dad and Thurman and me going fishing. Thurman was Dad's very best friend and me being a big tomboy loved to tag along. Jerry's brother, Roger just lived down the street from you and Curt and your parents when Jerry & I were first married. We will be praying for you and your family. May got bless and comfort each of you.
