

Zachary Andrew Carter

June 14, 2005 - November 3, 2023

Zachary Andrew “Zac” Carter, 18, of Springville, received his healing on Friday, November 3, 2023. Zac passed peacefully to his heavenly home while at St. Jude Children’s Research Hospital in Memphis surrounded by his beloved family.

Zac bravely & courageously battled metastatic osteosarcoma for over 7 years. Throughout the many difficulties he faced & the adversities he endured, Zac remained filled with faith, courage, hope, humor, & smiles. Although cancer took so much from Zac, including both his legs, pieces of his lungs, the use of his arm & hand, & much of a normal childhood, it could not take his faith, his hope, his love of life and for other people, his crazy sense of humor, or his smile. It could not conquer his indomitable spirit.

Zac taught us all to look for the good in each day (even the difficult ones), to always hold on to our faith and hope, to be kind, to laugh (even at our own challenging situations), to stay positive, & to choose joy. Zac’s smile lit up every room he was in & the internet also as numerous people around the world followed his journey. His quick wit & dry sense of humor kept those around him laughing (or wondering if it was appropriate to laugh since the one-liners he flatly delivered were often at the expense of himself & his health difficulties).

Zac loved playing video games, which he often used to distract himself from his pain. He enjoyed Nintendo, Pokémon, & all things Mario (as evidenced by the sockets on his prosthetic legs). He loved talking with & playing games online with friends and spending time with his sister Rachel. Zac loved the Lord & attended Mudfork Church of Christ & Springville Christian Church when his health allowed. He held tightly to his faith & let his light shine throughout his life.

Zac was preceded in death by his grandfather, Kenneth Brooks, and his dear friend Carson Dimsdale. Left to cherish his memory & carry on his legacy are his parents, Jeff & Amy Carter; his sister and best friend, Rachel Carter; grandparents, Ken & Freda Carter and Ima Jean Brooks; aunts and uncles, Donna Snyder & husband Kurt, and Kelli Brooks & husband Randy Scheri, as well as numerous cousins, family members, dear friends & a host of individuals who fervently prayed for Zac and supported & encouraged Zac & his family throughout his lengthy battle.

The family would like to offer special thanks to the doctors, nurses, administrators, & staff at St. Jude Children's Research Hospital. Zac loved his St. Jude family.

A service celebrating Zac's life will be held on Saturday, November 18, 2023, at 1 pm at Graham Middle School, 1 Academic Circle, Bluefield, VA, with ministers John Elmore, Tony Reed, and Steve Moran officiating. Interment will follow at Grandview Memory Gardens in Bluefield, VA. Serving as pallbearers will be: Kaleb Snyder, Josh Snyder, Levi Snyder, Lucas Brooks, Isaac Brooks, and Eli Brooks. Honorary pallbearers are: CJ Moreno and Dr. Michael Bishop. Friends may visit with the family beginning at 5pm until 9pm on Friday evening at Graham Middle School and from 12pm until 1pm prior to the service on Saturday. The service will be streamed live on the Hurst-Scott Funeral Home Facebook page.

To celebrate Zac's life, the lengthy battle he fought, & the amazing care he received at St. Jude, any gifts in memoriam may be sent to St. Jude Children's Research Hospital, 501 St. Jude Place, Memphis, TN 38105.

Hurst-Scott Funeral Home in Richlands, Virginia oversees arrangements and those wishing to express sympathy online may do so at www.hurstscottfuneralhomes.com.

“ I remember seeing Zac and Carson together at the Target House, playing video games together. Carson truly looked up to his best friend as cancer warriors. They were more like brothers than great friends. I was so grateful Carson had such a wonderful person to love and support him. God bless Zac Carter. May he rest in peace now with Jesus throughout eternity.

“ I did not know Zac. I prayed for him from afar and kept up with his story through Facebook up until I no longer used the app. I am so sorry to hear of YOUR loss. What a gain for Zac, though. Thank you so much for being real and sharing your Zac with us all, those who knew him and those who did not. We all have been strengthened and encouraged through your faith and his. May God bless you and give you the peace and comfort that only He can give. We will all look forward to meeting Zac one day. What a day that will be--to see Jesus-- and to see your Zac running to meet you! Praying for you,

“ Although I never had the pleasure of meeting Zac in person, I have followed his sweet smile and journey since the beginning of his internet/facebook postings. I have seen the love, laughter and spirit of Jesus throughout the past 7 years. My heart breaks, as many thousands of Zac's internet family does. But it also rejoices. Zac is running, laughing and throwing his jokes to all that are around him in Heaven. He and his family have taught me so much, even now, as I face my own cancer battle. I am thankful for you, Zac. For your family and for your faith in the savior we share. I will get to meet you in person when I enter heaven's gates, Zac Carter. I will continue to pray for each of you. May God give you comfort, love and laughter. Lisa Robertson, Princeton, WV.

“ We followed your journey through the words of your dear mom.

To say your smile warmed so many hearts is an understatement.

Your team at St Jude was beyond amazing doing all they do everyday.

Zac, you never personally knew me, but young man we can honestly say we love you. You touched our hearts and soul so deeply.

Your dad and my husband know one another through work.

We will lift your precious family's name in prayer as they tackle the days and years ahead without your precious smile to figure them.

The battle was long and hard. Now rest and play on the streets of heaven forever healed.

Your legacy's of heart warming smiles, your deep love for God and family will be around for eternity.

I cannot help but believe that St Jude can continue their battle to find a cure by all they researched through your treatments and care.

I pray for your team and friends your family made at St Jude. I can only imagine their pain and emotions.

We all know your healed and no more pain will you ever go through. Rest easy young man.

Find my momma and hold her hand, she would love to have you as her best friend.

From our entire family to yours, God bless.

“ Zac you are an inspiration to the human race, You fought a good fight and now you are enjoying your eternal reward in Heaven, around the throne, singing and praising Jesus, the one who died that we may have salvation. You have joined the great crowd of witnesses that Hebrews speaks about in chapter 11. You are among the heroes of faith, and justly so, for you never lost your smile , your faith, or your love for God. I can imagine you smiling everyday for you have made it home and are safe forever from any type of cancer, treatments, pain, or the after effects of treatment. Enjoy eternity for you fought the fight and have won the crown of eternal life.

I have never met Zac but I have prayed for him and his family for a few years now. He was such a brave and courageous young man. I will miss praying nightly for him but will pray for his family. Such a beautiful smile he always had may God bless you all!

Mt hero is now an angel. I am sure he is singing with the angels and sitting on Jesus's knee and he is so happy and smiling that sweet smile that he always smiled here on earth. You have no idea how many people that you blessed with your courageous spirit and your beautiful smile. Fly high and sing your song of victory for you have surely earned many crowns and jewels while on earth.. I have prayed many prayers for you and they were not in vain. You are in heaven and what more could I wish for you? Time to rest my Warrior. You will truly be missed on earth.

Zac was such a strong soldier in his earthly journey. He was such an inspiration to all who loved him whether family, friends and strangers. There are so many things to be said about this awesome young man, but the bottom line is that he was such a blessing to all he came in contact with. He certainly blessed our hearts and lives with his beautiful smile, sweet spirit and unwavering faith. We will always hold him in our hearts. May God hold you all in His arms and give you the comfort, peace and strength you need now and, in the time, to come. We could just imagine seeing Zac running on his new legs to meet Jesus!
